Thoughts to Derby Day

By JOHN LARDNER,

NEW YORK, Feb. 13 (N.A.N.A.).-This is a cold and early day to be talking about Derby horses, but when Whirlaway won his first start of the year last week end, performing soundly and in good time at Hialeah, the old fever clapped its grip upon us winter Derby fans.

Col. Matt J. Winn, the hardboot promoter, runs off the 67th copy of the Kentucky Derby, racing bugs On Ernie Dusek in will chart the course of every 3-yearold with the remotest chance of running for the roses at Louisville.

of the winter bookmakers now, as they get their sheets ready. The entries will be announced March 10, and the winter books will follow swiftly. The Derby practically is around the corner.

Lawrin Wasn't Bothered By Winter Running

Whirlaway will run again in the Flamingo Stakes, one of the win-ric true big races for 3-year-olds. In Rec League His chief rival should be Dispose, a fast son of Discovery. Some of your horse nuts and horse experts say that winter campaigning is no good for a Derby horse, but Lawrin, who won this same Flamingo Stakes, gave the theory a whipping three years ago when he went right on to capture the Derby.

The other big run of the winter is at Santa Anita. The winners of this race-the Santa Anita Derbyhave not fared so well at Louisville. The best of them.
